Superintendent's Highlights

The Lewiston School District is proud of the achievements of its staff and students in 1997-98. Sacajawea Junior High teacher Josie Marshall was named the Idaho Middle Level Educator of the Year for 1997-98. Teacher Mike Uhling received the Technology Education Teacher of the Year award from the Idaho International Technology Education Association. Spanish teacher Dennis Ohrtman was elected president of the Pacific Northwest Council for Languages. Our Jenifer Junior High MathCounts team won the Idaho State MathCounts Championship. The LHS High School Bowl team took second place at the INEEL Scholastic Tournament. High school student winners include Bob Wicks who took First Place-trumpet and Emily Davis who won Second Place-flute at the Idaho State Solo Competition, and Kevin Haag who won Second Place in precision machining at the Idaho VICA Skills Championship. Ninth grader Veronica DeLane was a Distinguished Finalist in The Prudential Spirit of Community Awards program. Our high school seniors won over $563,000 in scholarships. Finally, the Lewiston School District again received a "What Parents Want" Award from SchoolMatch, placing it among the top 14% of school districts in the nation.

Progress Towards Meeting District Goals

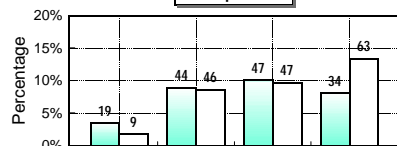

1997-98 Goals	Progress
Renew the district's Supplemental Levy for another 5 years	Citizens Committee recommended renewal of existing levy at a slightly increased rate. Voters approved new levy rate on May 19, 1998 with a 70.25% yes vote.
Install and activate a fiber optic wide-area network	25 miles of fiber optic cable was installed to link all 12 district campuses. In process is the transfer of all internal data network, voice and video transmission onto the system.
Plan and obtain funding for creation of SmartLabs at secondary schools	Received a grant of $720,855 from the Albertson Foundation to install vocational/industrial arts computer labs at the district's 4 secondary schools.
Review and revise graduation requirements consistent with new state requirements.	In February 1998, the School Board adopted new, more rigorous graduation requirements for the Class of 2002 which were designed by a committee of staff persons and citizens.
Review and improve Gifted & Talented and enrichment program opportunities	Input was gathered from staff, students and parents and used to redesign program. Services to be provided during 1998-99 will be building-based, increasing the amount of time spent with an increased number of individual students.
